CONCERT

January 20, 1979 Wingate North - Tan Tar A Resort Osage Beach, Missouri

Colonel Arnald D. Gabriel, the Commander--Conductor of the United States Air Force Band, Symphony Orchestra and the Singing Sergeants in Washington, D. C. He has been acclaimed by musicians and critics throughout the world as one of our nation's outstanding conductors. He is one of the world's most widely traveled directors, having conducted in all of the 50 states and in 45 countries throughout the world.

Colonel Gabriel first served as a combat machine gunner with the 29th Infantry Division in World War II, 1943-46. He graduated Cum Laude from Ithaca College, New York as an undergraduate and earning his Masters Degree in Music Education at the same institution. As a diversion, he earned a private pilot's license as well.

He was first a Warrant Officer-Band leader in 1951, receiving a direct Commission as First Lieutenant in 1955, one of the first Air Force Band Leaders to receive this commission. He had been Band Leader at Sampson AFB, Geneva, New York; Conductor of the TAC Band, Langley AFB, Virginia, and Conductor of the USAF Europe Band in Germany in 1958. It was during this unprecedented five year tour of duty that he was awarded the Legion of Merit for his outstanding service to the United States through music.

In his career he has conducted the Danish Home Guard Band of Copenhagen, a NATO Band representing 15 NATO nations, Italy's Carabinere Band, The Italian Air Force Band, the Gamagori Band of Japan, to quote only a few of his distinguished honors. In August, 1963, he was appointed Commander-Conductor of the US Air Force Academy Band in Colorado, and in June of 1964 assumed his present assignment.

In addition to the Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster, Colonel Gabriel holds the Combat Infantryman's Badge, the Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Air Force Commendation Medal, and his unit receiving the Outstanding Unit Award with Oak Leaf Cluster. He had been honored by musicians as well; The St. Cecelia Award from Notre Dame, a National Citation by Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and a Distinguished Service Award by Kappa Kappa Psi, National Band Fraternity. He is a member of many prestigious Music and Service Organizations.
