Robert Curnow, Director

About the Conductor

Robert Curnow is currently the President of the National Association of Jazz Educators and is in his eighth year as the Director of the McDonald's All-American High School Jazz Band. Under Curnow's direction, this ensemble has appeared on the NBC TODAY show, the Jerry Lewis MD Telethon, at jazz clubs such as Donte's (Los Angeles) and Rick's Cafe America (Chicago) and with such notable jazz greats as Lionel Hampton, Ramsey Lewis, and Maynard Ferguson.

From 1976-1987 he was Director of Bands and Jazz Studies and the award-winning No. 1 Jazz Ensemble at California State University in Los Angeles. Prior to that time, Curnow was a trombonist (1963-64), arranger (1963-1978), and record producer (24 LP albums, 1972-76) for Stan Kenton's Creative World Records and the Stan Kenton Orchestra. Curnow's arrangements and/or compositions can be heard on six Kenton albums.

Mr. Curnow is widely recorded and published as a composer/arranger for jazz ensemble, and is the owner and President of Sierra Music Publications, which is located in Liberty Lake, Washington.

Curnow has been an active guest conductor of symphony orchestras (Boston Pops, Cleveland Philharmonic, Florida Symphony, Shreveport Symphony) and All-State Jazz Ensembles (Texas, New York, Washington, Georgia, Wisconsin, Alabama) throughout the United States. He has served as an adjudicator and/or clinician at jazz festivals in over 40 states in the past 25 years, and is currently serving as Musical Director of the Spokane Jazz Orchestra.

Dr. Ann Howard Jones, Director
Cheryl Nichols, Accompanist

About the Conductor

Ann Howard Jones is Director of Choral Activities at the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign, where she teaches the masters and doctoral choral conducting seminar and conducts the University of Illinois Chorale, an ensemble of graduate students in the School of Music. Dr. Jones is also Assistant Director of Choruses of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, where she works closely with Robert Shaw in preparation of both the large chorus and the chamber chorus. She is a member of the alto section of both groups and appeared with them in the summer of 1988 when ASO made its debut foreign tour to Berlin, Zurich, Ludwigsburg, Paris, Bristol and London.

A student of Daniel Moe and Don Moses, Dr. Jones has bachelors, masters, and doctorate from the University of Iowa. She began her teaching career in southern California and has spent the past fifteen years in colleges and universities in Georgia and Iowa before assuming her position at the University of Illinois in the fall of 1988.

Dr. Jones was awarded the Fulbright Senior Lectureship to Brazil in 1984, where she consulted in the development of a university choral program and taught choral and vocal pedagogy. During that time, she was invited to conduct amateur choruses all over the country and to present workshops in her fields of specialization.

She is in constant demand as a guest lecturer and guest conductor because of her acknowledged expertise in choral conducting, methods and materials, and vocal techniques. She is also highly sought after as a guest conductor of festival choirs, all-state choirs, and music camps in the United States, Europe, the Near East, and South America. Her association with Robert Shaw included a position on the staff of the Robert Shaw Institute's first summer program in southwestern France in 1988.

Dr. Jones is a member of the International Federation of Choral Music and she was one of 250 conductors from around the world who attended the First World Symposium on Choral Music held in Vienna, Austria in August, 1987. She is Past President of Georgia ACDA and is a member of NATS, MENC, GMEA, and numerous other professional organizations. She and groups she has conducted have been invited to appear for conventions of the ACDA, GMEA, MENC, and AGO. She holds a life membership in the American Choral Directors Association.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

For the cooperation of the students, the parents, the directors and the school administrators from the entire state, without whom this activity could not exist.
To the Regional Band Vice Presidents, without whom we could not have a base for success in forming this fine All-State Band.
For the support of Wingert-Jones Music Co. to the All-State Program. To Smith-Cotton High School, Cameron High School, and Harrisonville High School.
To 28 Band Directors of the auditioning staff, to members of the Hickman High School Band who served as monitors, to John Patterson and the Administration of Hickman High School for the facilities and support.
To the All-State Band Chaperones; to Pam Henry and Tanya Smith for all they do behind the scene.
To Everyone who has a role to play in this huge project. Thank you for your help, your patience, your concern, and your endurance.
