Michael Allard - Conductor

About The Conductor

Michael Allard is director of the University Orchestra and Professor of Viola at University of the Pacific in Stockton, California. He received his B.A. in Music and English from Colgate University and his M.M.E. from Florida State University. He received his certificate in Educational Administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He is currently a Ph.D. candidate in Music Education at the University of Texas at Austin.

In 1989, Mr. Allard became director of the Punahou School Orchestra and violist with the Hamilton String Quartet in Honolulu. He has also served as Orchestra Coordinator of the Clark County School District in Las Vegas and conductor of the Sunset Symphony Orchestra. He has taught Suzuki violin in Albany, Georgia and was conductor and teacher of violin and viola in the University of Texas String Project. As director of the sunset Symphony he performed a concert for President Reagan and debuted at Carnegie Hall. The Punahou School Orchestra also had a Carnegie Hall debut under his leadership and performed in Washington, D.C. at the MENC/ASTA National Convention in 1990.

Mr. Allard has served as guest clinician at workshops and conventions throughout the United States. He has been guest conductor for many all-state and district orchestras in such places as New York, California, Montana, Texas, Louisiana, Nevada, and Hawaii. He has had numerous published articles and has a work published by Selmer Company for national distribution, Razzle-Dazzle: Marketing The School Orchestra.

In addition to his conducting engagements and his position at University of the Pacific, Mr. Allard is an active member of the Music Educators National Conference, American String Teachers Association, National Education Association, Allied Arts Council, and the National School Orchestra Association, as well as state-wide organizations in Nevada, Hawaii, Texas and California.

The Missouri All-State High School String Orchestra is sponsored by the Missouri Unit of the American String Teachers Association with the cooperation of the Missouri Music Educators Association. MO-ASTA wishes to gratefully acknowledge the Missouri Arts Council for their generous contribution of matching funds toward the commissioning of the Paul Whear composition. This project would not have been feasible without the Council's assistance. We are also deeply indebted to the members of MO-ASTA who have made individual contributions toward the commissioned work.

ABOUT THE COMPOSER - Paul Whear

Paul W. Whear, born in Auburn, Indiana, holds degrees from Marquette University and DePaw University, as well as a Ph.D. from Western Reserve University. He has also studied at Boston University and the Eastman School of Music. His composition teachers include Donald H. White, Gardner Read, Wayne Barlow and Wilfrid Josepfs. He has conducted the Huntington Chamber Orchestra for twenty years, and is currently Resident Composer at Marshall University as well as a member of the faculty at the Interlochen National Music Camp.

Among his honors, Dr. Whear lists eight prizes in national composition contests, MacDowell Conoly Fellowships, grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, continuing A.S.C.A.P. awards, and the Huntington Hartford Resident Fellowship. In 1963, FANFARE MAGAZINE listed him as one of America's ten top composers for band. His compositions have been performed all over the U.S., in Canada, Japan, and in nine European nations (including BBC broadcasts).

Dr. Whear has received commissions for various mediums and major works for orchestra, chorus and band. He has had performances by the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Cleveland Philharmonic, the Indianapolis Symphony, the Rochester Civic Orchestra, the Oklahoma City Symphony, and on Commercial and Educational Television. He is listed in the Baker's Biographical Dictionary, Who's Who in the East, and the International Who's Who in Music.

René Clausen, Conductor

Leslie Bunch, Accompanist

About The Conductor

René Clausen has been the conductor of The Concordia Choir, Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota, since 1986. Prior to this appointment, he served as Director of Choral Activities at West Texas State University, Canyon, Texas, and as assistant professor of choral music at Wichita State University, Wichita, Kansas.

Clausen is a graduate of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, and holds the Masters Degree in Conducting Performance from the University of Illinois, where he is currently completing his Doctorate of Musical Arts in Choral Conducting.

In addition to conducting, René Clausen is known throughout the United States as an active composer and clinician. He has written over 30 commissioned works and has led choral workshops in over 30 states. In 1990, Clausen guest conducted The Dale Warland Singers in a recording of his first large work, A New Creation.

Mike Steinel - Conductor

About the Conductor

Mike Steinel is a jazz trumpeter, pianist, composer, and arranger. He is presently Assistant Professor of Jazz Studies at the University of North Texas where he teaches jazz improvisation and pedagogy of jazz improvisation. Prior to joining the UNT faculty Mike served on the jazz faculty at Northern Illinois University and was active as a performer, arranger and clinician in the Chicago area.

Mike has served on the faculties of the Clark Terry Jazz Camp, the Jamey Aebersold Improvisation Workshop, the Saskatchewan Summer Jazz Camp, and the Missouri Jazz Residency. He has performed with numerous jazz artists such as Clark Terry, Don Ellis, Bill Evans, Jerry Bergonzi and has recorded with the Chicago Jazz Quintet and the Frank Mantooth Big Band. He appears as soloist on the Frank Mantooth album, Persevere, on the Optimism label.

Mike holds degrees in music from Emporia State (BME) and North Texas State University (MME). After leaving NTSU in 1979, he served as "Jazz Artist in Residence" for four years at Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas.

Mike has received numerous honors including an Illinois Arts Council Chairman's Grant (1985), and a jazz fellowship grant from the National Endowment for the Arts (1987). He has performed as soloist at the MENC National Convention, the NAJE National Convention, and the Mid-West Band and Orchestra Clinic.

Mike plays Yamaha trumpets and flugelhorn.

Acknowledgements

Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors and school administrators from throughout the state. Without that cooperation this activity could not take place.

Thanks to the MMEA Band Vice-Presidents who provided us the rosters of students who were eligible to audition for this band.

Thanks to Wingert-Jones Music Inc., Hickman High School, Moberly High School, Richmond High School, Marshall High School and Northwest Missouri State University for providing folders, music, and equipment for the band.

Thanks to the dedicated band directors who served as auditioners, and the members of the Hickman High School Band who served as room monitors at auditions on December 7. Also, many thanks to John Patterson, Tim Baldwin, and the administration of Hickman High School for their facilities and support.

Thanks to Head Chaperone, Pam Henry, and to all of the All-State Band chaperones.

Finally, thanks to everyone who helped in any way to make this project a success!
