About the Conductor

Kenneth Andrews is Music Director and Conductor for the Chamber Orchestra of Northern New York. He has guest conducted the Vermont Symphony Orchestra as well as the Bay View Music Festival Orchestra. He has also served as Music Director and conductor for the Champlain Valley Symphony Orchestra (Plattsburgh, NY) and the Plattsburgh Community Orchestra as well as Director of Orchestras at Ohio University and the Bay View Music Festival Conservatory Orchestra.

Mr. Andrews received his B.M. and M.M. degrees with high honors from Indiana University in Bloomington where he studied with noted flutist James Pellerite, and was awarded the prestigious Performer's Certificate. He has done further study in conducting with Dr. Karl Ahrendt, Distinguished Professor Emeritus at Ohio University. As a flutist, Andrews has served as Associate Principal flute with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra and has been Principal and guest Principal with several other orchestras and festivals around the United States and Canada and has been featured on public radio and television.

Mr. Andrews has served on the faculty at Indiana University, Concordia University (Montreal), Ohio University and as Artist-in-Residence at the Bay View Music Festival. Since the fall of 1986, he has been a member of the Crane School of Music faculty where he teaches flute, coaches chamber music, performs with the Potsdam Woodwind Quintet, the Potsdam Baroque Soloists, and directs the Contemporary Music Ensemble. Some of his awards include first place winner for the flute division of the Pittsburgh International Wind Competition, the President's Award for Excellence in Research and Creative Endeavors at Potsdam College (1991), the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching, and New York State United University Professors Excellence Award for Outstanding Professional Performance and Community Service.

About the Composer

Samuel Adler

Samuel Adler was born in Mannheim, Germany in 1928 and came to the United States in 1939. He holds a B.M. from Boston University, an M.A. from Harvard University, a Doctor of Music (honorary) from Southern Methodist University, a Doctor of Fine Arts (honorary) from Wake Forest University, and a Doctor of Music (honorary) from Saint Louis Conservatory. During his tenure in the U.S. Army, he founded and conducted the Seventh Army Symphony Orchestra and because of the orchestra's great psychological and musical impact on the European cultural scene, he was awarded the Army's Medal of Honor.

Adler's catalog includes over 300 published works in all media. He has had numerous articles published in leading American and European magazines and has published three books. He has received commissions and grants from the National Endowment for the Arts (1975, 1978, 1980, and 1982), the Ford Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation, and major orchestras and chamber ensembles throughout the United States.

Since 1966, Adler has been professor of composition at the Eastman School of Music and chairman of the composition department since 1974. He has been awarded many prizes including a 1990 award from the American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters, and the Charles Ives Award. He was awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1984-85, and in 1989 was awarded the Eastman School's Eisenhart Award for distinguished teaching.

His works have been performed by major symphonic, choral and chamber organizations in the U.S., South America, Europe and Israel including the New York Philharmonic, the Chicago Symphony, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Dallas Symphony, the Boston Pops, the Houston Symphony, and the Detroit Symphony, as well as the orchestras of Kansas City, San Antonio, Ft. Worth, New Orleans, and others.

Adler has also appeared as conductor with major orchestras both here and abroad and his compositions have been recorded on RCA, Vanguard, Crystal, CRI, Lyricord, Mark, Turnabout, Gasparo, and Golden Crest Records.

Peter Bagley - Conductor

About the Conductor

Peter Bagley, Professor of Music at The University of Connecticut, received his B.S. in Music Education at the Crane School of Music, State University of New York at Potsdam, and his D.M. in Choral Conducting under Julius Herford at Indiana University. He taught public school music in Greenwich, Connecticut, and prior to his appointment as Director of Choral Activities at the University of Connecticut, was Professor of Music at the State University of New York, College at New Paltz.

Dr. Bagley has held summer or part-time appointments at Harvard University, the University of Illinois at Urbana, Marshall University, and the University of Iowa, and has been invited as guest conductor and choral clinician for numerous festivals and all-state choirs throughout the country. Among many engagements, he recently conducted the MENC All-Eastern Division Chorus in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and launched his international career as choral clinician for various choirs in a ten-city tour of New Zealand sponsored by the New Zealand Choral Federation. He was invited to appear as a clinician at the International Choral Symposium in Kansas City, Missouri, and this season he will conduct all-state choirs in Kansas, Missouri, Rhode Island and New York as well as many regional festivals throughout the country.

Dr. Bagley is currently Music Director of the Eastern Connecticut Symphony Orchestra Chorus and was invited to conduct the combined forces in the 1991-92 season. He was responsible for the choral preparation of the University of Connecticut Concert Choir in their collaboration with the Eastern Connecticut Symphony Orchestra in the world premiere recording of Sydney Hodkinson's Missa Brevis, recently released on Centaur Records. He is an active member of the American Choral Directors Association, and was honored in October 1990 by the Connecticut chapter as "...the Connecticut Choral Educator of the Year." He is also active in the American Choral Foundation, Chorus America, The College Music Society, the Connecticut Music Educators Association, the Music Educators National Conference and the National Black Music Caucus. His professional achievements are recognized in Who's Who in the East, and Who's Who Among Black Americans.

Dr. Robert Morgan - Conductor

About the Conductor

Robert Morgan has been Director of Jazz Studies at Houston's High School for Performing and Visual Arts since 1976. He was previously director of the jazz program at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas.

Dr. Morgan is in wide demand as a jazz adjudicator/clinician, and has served in this capacity throughout Texas, and in Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Oklahoma. In 1982, he was conductor of the Georgia All-State Jazz Ensemble, and in 1989, conductor of the Wisconsin Honors All-State Jazz Ensemble. He has twice been conductor of the Texas Community College All-State Jazz Ensemble.

In September, 1986, Morgan was appointed to the Jazz Music Advisory Panel of the National Endowment for the Arts. He was appointed Co-chairman of this panel in 1987, and Chairman in 1988.

In September, 1987, Morgan was chosen "Teacher of the Year" by the University of North Texas. This award is presented annually to a North Texas graduate who is devoting his/her career to public education in Texas, and includes a $2500 honorarium.

Morgan was recently elected President-elect of IAJE-Texas. He previously served as President of the Texas Unit in the late 1970s.

Colonel L. Bryan Shelburne, Jr. - Conductor

About the Conductor

Col. L. Bryan Shelburne, Jr. is Leader and Commander of the United States Army Band (Pershing's Own). Prior to his appointment to The Army Band, he served as leader of The United States Military Academy Band at West Point, was bass trombonist for the Abilene Philharmonic Orchestra for six seasons, and has taught high school and elementary bands in Houston, Texas.

Col. Shelburne holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Hardin-Simmons University, and a Master of Music from Arizona State University. In 1989 he was selected for membership in the American Bandmasters Association and also serves on the Board of Directors for the John Philip Sousa Foundation. He is a member of the National Band Association, the Music Educators National Conference, and the College Band Directors National Association.

Under his direction, Pershing's Own has performed for the 1990 Economic Summit of the Industrialized Nations, performed for the "Sweedish Army Tatoo" in Strangas, Sweeden, and marched in the Desert Storm Victory Parades in both Washington, D.C. and New York City.

In 1990 Col. Shelburne was named by his alma mater, Hardin-Simmons University, as one of three Centennial Year Distinguished Graduates of the University. He was also named in 1993 as a Distinguished Visiting Lecturer at Hardin-Simmons, and was chosen in 1976 to be Associate Director and Deputy Commander for the United States Armed Forces Bicentennial Band and Chorus which was organized to help the nation celebrate its 200th birth year.

Acknowledgements

Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors and school administrators from throughout the state. Without that cooperation this activity could not take place.

Thanks to Kent Summers and the MSHSAA for their help and cooperation.

Thanks to the MMEA Band Vice-Presidents for running the district level auditions and providing MBA with the lists of eligible students.

Thanks to Wingert-Jones Music, School Music Service, Hickman High School, Steve Scott, Marshall High School, Central Methodist College, Fayette High School, and Columbia Band Instrument for providing music, folders, and equipment for the All-State Band.

Thanks to the dedicated band directors who served as auditioners.

Thanks to John Patterson, Craig Miller, and the Hickman High School music students who served as our hosts for the auditions on December 4. Without you we could not do this.

Thanks to Head Chaperone Pam Henry and to all of the All-State Band chaperones.

Thanks to Paul, Wendell, and Jim. And finally, thanks to everyone who helped in any way to make this project a success!
