W. Francis McBeth - Conductor

About the Conductor

Dr. W. Francis McBeth is Professor of Music, Resident Composer and Chairman of the Theory-Composition Department at Ouachita University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas and has held this position since 1957. Dr. McBeth was appointed to the Lena Trimble Shepperson Endowed Chair of Music by the president and trustees of Ouachita University in 1983. He was conductor of the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra in Little Rock for many years until his retirement in 1973, whereupon he was elected Conductor Emeritus. In 1975 he was appointed Composer Laureate of the State of Arkansas by the Governor.

Dr. McBeth's formal training was received at Hardin-Simmons University, University of Texas and the Eastman School of Music. He is a member of the American Bandmasters Association, Past President, American Bandmasters Association, 1993-4, National Band Association, Phi Beta Mu, Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Alpha, Tri-M Honorary Music Society, contributing editor of The Instrumentalist Magazine and American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. The majority of his published catalog (music and books) is published by Southern Music Company of San Antonio, Texas. His publications include works for all media, choral, chamber, orchestral and band. His intense interest in the wind symphony has been a shaping force in its literature, and his style is much reflected in the younger composers.

As a composer Dr. McBeth has consistently been in the top group of the most performed American symphonic wind composers the past 30 years, and as a conductor and lecturer, he travels nine months out of the year and has conducted in 48 of the 50 states, Europe, Japan and Australia.

Dr. Robert Gillespie - Conductor

About the Conductor

Dr. Robert Gillespie, Associate Professor, is responsible for string teacher training at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, which has one of the largest string education enrollments and most extensive string pedagogy curricula in the nation. He is Director of the American String Teachers Associations' National Resource Center and is past president of the Ohio String Teachers Association. Dr. Gillespie has conducted student festival orchestras, region and All-State Orchestras, and presented string teacher sessions and workshops at national and state music educator conferences in 24 states and Canada.

In Columbus, Dr. Gillespie is a violinist in the Pro Musica Chamber Orchestra. He also directs the Columbus Symphony Junior Orchestra and the annual Midwest Summer String Teacher Conference. He directs the annual Middle School Orchestra Camp for the Ohio String Teachers Association each summer. In addition, he is active in string education research: He is the author of three video diagnostic programs designed to train music teachers. He also developed research-based teaching strategies for developing student bowing and vibrato skills.

Dr. Gillespie's articles appear frequently in major music journals, including the American String Teacher, Music Educators Journal, Journal of Research in Music Education, Contributions, Dialogue in Instrumental Music, NSOA and the Instrumentalist. He is co-author of the new Hal Leonard comprehensive string method book series, String Excellence, and the MENC text on Strolling Strings. He is a clinician for Scherl and Roth.

About the Composer
John Cheetham

John Cheetham, a native of Taos, New Mexico, attended the University of New Mexico, where he received his B.S. and M.M. degrees. After serving for several years as an instrumental music director of the Albuquerque Public Schools, he attended the University of Washington in Seattle, where he received his D.M.A. degree in Composition in 1969. Since that time, Dr. Cheetham has served as a member of the theory and composition staff at the University of Missouri-Columbia, where he is Professor of Music.

Acknowledgements

Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, private teachers, orchestra and band directors, and school administrators for making the All-State Orchestra an outstanding event this year.

Thanks to all the State Universities for assisting the audition process this year.

Thanks to all the MO-ASTA members for helping to make this orchestra a success!

About the Conductor

Dr. Patrick Patton is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Casper College, a position he has held for 16 years. He is past chair of the department of music, and conductor of the Casper College Concert Chorale, Women's Chorale, and Contemporary Singers. He also serves as artistic director of the Choral Arts Ensemble of Casper, a 20-voice adult chamber choir.

Patton holds the Doctor of Musical Arts and the Master of Music degrees in choral conducting from the Conservatory of Music at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He received the Bachelor of Music in Education degree from the University of Wyoming.

He is known in 20 states throughout the country as guest conductor, adjudicator, and workshop clinician. Some of his credits include guest conductor of the All-Northwest ACDA Women's Choir, the All-State Honor choirs in Mississippi, Montana, North Dakota, West Virginia, and Wyoming, and the Honor and Women's Choirs at the International Music Camp in the International Peace Gardens in North Dakota. He has served as guest conductor for community choirs including the Casper Civic Chorale, the central Wyoming A Cappella Chamber Chorale, and the Williston, North Dakota Concert Chorale.

Dr. Patton recently traveled to Brazil to conduct the Wyoming Chamber Choir in several concerts. The choir joined their Brazilian counterparts in a performance of Beethoven's Choral Fantasy and Mass in C Major. In addition, he offered workshops in choral conducting and interpretation during his stay in that country.

Dr. Patton's performing groups have been invited to perform at state Music Educators National Conference conventions in Wyoming. The Casper College Women's Chorale performed at the All-Northwest ACDA convention in Missoula, Montana. He has presented workshops at both the state and regional levels for MENC and ACDA. He has also performed as guest tenor soloist with the Casper Symphony and Casper Civic Chorale.
