Dr. Gerald Fischbach - Conductor

About the Conductor

Dr. Gerald Fischbach is professor of violin and string pedagogy at the University of Maryland-College Park, where he is chair of the string division. He is one of the world’s most respected string pedagogues, whose articles and columns frequently appear in professional journals abroad as well as in the United States.

He has appeared to high critical acclaim as violin soloist and chamber musician throughout North America, Europe, Russia, China, Malaysia, Australia and New Zealand, and has recorded for CRI and Archive.

Dr. Fischbach is director of the renowned International Workshops and has served as president of the American String Teachers Association. He is in demand around the globe as workshop presenter, adjudicator, clinician and guest conductor. His biography appears in the International Who’s Who in Music.

Craig Hella Johnson - Conductor

Lorie Francis - Accompanist

About the Conductor

Craig Hella Johnson is Director of Choral Activities at the University of Texas-Austin, where he conducts the Chamber Singers and Concert Chorale, and heads the graduate program in choral conducting.

A native of Minnesota, Johnson studied at St. Olaf College, the Julliard School, Yale University, and the University of Illinois. He was also a student of Helmuth Rilling at the International Bach Academy in Stuttgart, Germany. Under Johnson's leadership, the Victoria Bach Festival has received high praise for its orchestral and choral performances. National Public Radio called this festival "a Texas treasure." In 1995, Johnson performed as pianist and conductor of Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 3 with the Bach Festival Orchestra. Johnson conducted his debut performance with the New Texas Festival in 1993.

In addition to his performances of some of the great choral masterworks, he has conducted a broad spectrum of seldom-performed works, including John Tavener's Ikon of Light, Gordon Binkerd's Autumn Flower, William Averitt's Afro-American Fragments, and Arvo Part's Passio. In addition, Craig Johnson is an advocate of American song literature, founding the Institute of American Song and presenting artists William Sharp, Phyllis Bryn-Julson, Carol Weber, Virginia Dupuy and Vern Sutton.

Johnson's performances with the Conspirare Choir have been praised for their superb artistry and have drawn national attention. The Conspirare Choir will be one of the featured performing ensembles at the SWACDA convention in Corpus Christi this March. Following a recent performance of his oratorio, A Dylan Thomas Trilogy, composer John Corigliano wrote: "I believe that Craig Johnson has understood my music in a way that I have never experienced before. He is a great musician...rare, and I felt fortunate to be able to finally hear what I had always dreamt about."

In addition to his teaching and conducting responsibilities at the University of Texas, Johnson maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor and clinician throughout the United States.

John Fedchock - Conductor

About the Conductor

John Fedchock established his career as a jazz trombonist in 1980 when he joined the legendary Woody Herman Orchestra. He toured with Woody's Thundering Herd for seven years, during which time he was musical director and a featured soloist. He also served as musical coordinator and chief arranger in the production of Herman's last two Grammy Award-nominated albums, 50th Anniversary Tour and Woody's Gold Star, and received critical acclaim from jazz journalists worldwide. Famed jazz critic Leonard Feather called him the unsung hero of the Woody's 50th Anniversary Tour album, and Woody said of Fedchock, "He's my right-hand man. Everything I ask of John, he accomplishes, and I ask a lot. He's a major talent." Down Beat magazine stated that it was the young blood of musicians like Fedchock that helped keep Woody Herman's last years musically healthy and growing. Fedchock still maintains a close association with the Herman orchestra, performing with the group on occasion and continuing to add his own compositions and arrangements to the band's library.

Now an active performer and arranger in New York City, Fedchock is the leader of his own 16-piece New York Big Band. The band's debut recording, New York Big Band, on the Reservoir label, received high praise from critics, including a 4½-star review in Down Beat. The success of the band has resulted in Fedchock's name appearing in Down Beat's Reader Poll under the categories of Trombone, Arranger and Big Band, simultaneously. Fedchock has toured with Gerry Mulligan's Concert Jazz Band, Louie Bellson's Big Band, and the Carnegie Hall Jazz Band, and has performed at jazz festivals and concert halls around the world. As a solo artist, he appears throughout the United States, and has toured Sweden and New Zealand as a guest trombonist/composer/conductor. As a clinician, Fedchock performs and conducts seminars and workshops at colleges and universities across the country and abroad. He is also an International Trombone Chair for the International Association of Jazz Educators. Many of Fedchock's jazz compositions and arrangements are published by Kendor Music, Inc.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Fedchock is a graduate of Ohio State University with degrees in music education and jazz studies. He also holds a Master's degree in jazz studies and contemporary media from the prestigious Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York.

Anthony Maiello - Conductor

* FESTIVAL VARIATIONS, by Claude T. Smith, was commissioned by Col. Arnald D. Gabriel, conductor of the United States Air Force Band. The work was premiered in San Antonio, Texas, on February 10, 1982, by the United States Air Force Band at a combined conference of the Texas Music Educators and the Music Educators National Conference, celebrating its 75th anniversary. The piece was met with immediate and overwhelming acclaim by the thousands in attendance. Since then, it has become a significant element of band repertoires around the world. Part of its acclaim stems from its ability to challenge performers and excite audiences both in America and abroad.

Claude T. Smith was born and raised in Missouri, and chose to live here, where he taught, composed and served as president of the Missouri Music Educators Association. This past December marked the 10th anniversary of Mr. Smith's sudden and untimely death. On this occasion, Mr. Maiello and the 1998 All-State Band dedicate this performance of Festival Variations to the family, friends and many associates of Claude T. Smith, who loved and admired not only his music, but also Claude himself.

About the Conductor

Mr. Anthony Maiello is Professor of Music and Director of Instrumental Studies at George Mason University in Fairfax, Virginia. His academic career includes public school teaching and service as Professor of Music and Chairman of Performance at the Crane School of Music, SUNY Potsdam. Under his direction, the ensembles at Crane and George Mason University have commissioned many new works, made numerous recordings, and have appeared at regional, state, and national conferences.

Mr. Maiello travels widely presenting clinics, lectures and workshops, as well as guest conducting and adjudicating numerous music festivals. He has served as Associate Conductor of the McLean Orchestra, McLean, Virginia, and he conducted musical activities for the Gold Medal Ceremonies of the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, New York. His travels as conductor, clinician and adjudicator have taken him to Europe, Mexico, Canada, and the Bahamas as well as throughout the United States.

Mr. Maiello's book, Conducting: A Hands-On Approach, has been published by Warner Bros. Publications and is accompanied by a videocassette and CD recording. Anthony Maiello holds bachelor's and master's degrees in music, both earned at Ithaca College, New York.

All-State Band Acknowledgments

- Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors and school administrators from throughout the state. Without their cooperation, this activity could not take place.
- Thanks to Kent Summers and MSHSAA for their help and cooperation.
- Thanks to MMEA Band Vice-Presidents for running the district level auditions and providing MBA with the lists of eligible students.
- Thanks to Wingert-Jones Music, Shattinger Music, Glynn's Music Company, Moberly High School, University of Missouri-Columbia, Truman State University, and Liberty High School.
- Thanks to Hennessy Music for supplying the acoustic piano for the rehearsal room.
- Thanks to all the auditioners and registration personnel for their hours of dedicated work on December 6.
- Thanks to Head Chaperone Pam Henry and to all of the All-State Chaperones.
- Thanks to Paul Copenhaver and Rosa Adams-Bussard for their help with percussion equipment and assignments.
- Special thanks to John Patterson, Craig Miller and Hickman High School staff, parents and students who hosted the All-State Band Auditions on December 6. Without your hospitality and generosity, this would not be possible.
- Thanks to Steve, Paul, Skip, Wendell, Kurt, and Pam. Thanks to all of you who donated your time and effort to make this project a success.

1998 MBA Convention: June 28 - July 1 - Marina Bay, Lake of the Ozarks
