Jo-Michael Scheibe - Conductor
Lorie Francis - Accompanist

About the Conductor

Jo-Michael Scheibe is program director and professor of Choral Studies at the University of Miami School of Music, where he conducts its University Chorale. Internationally active in the development of contemporary choral literature and widely recognized for his work with 20th century repertoire, music commissions and young composers, Dr. Scheibe was appointed in 1997 as the music and artistic director of Florida’s nationally recognized symphonic chorus, the Master Chorale of Tampa Bay. He is also founder of the Long Beach Master Chorale, as well as the founding conductor of the Los Angeles-based semi-professional ensemble Abend Kammer Chor; he appears nationally at universities and conferences as a guest lecturer, guest conductor and adjudicator. Ensembles under his leadership have performed on HBO, and have appeared with many international artists, including Luciano Pavarotti, José Carreras, Marvis Martin and Kenny Loggins. Dr. Scheibe has prepared choruses for Jahja Ling, Michael Tilson Thomas, Murray Sidlin, Irwin Hoffman, Paul Salamunovich and Alan Lombard, among others. Additionally, Dr. Scheibe has presented more than a dozen ensembles at national and regional ACDA and MENC conferences. Dr. Scheibe’s ensembles are recorded on the Albany, Cane and ANS labels, and his internationally distributed Choral Series focusing on the music of the 20th century composers is published by Walton and Plymouth Music. Dr. Scheibe received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from California State University at Long Beach, and his D.M.A. from the University of Southern California.

Allan McMurray - Conductor

About the Conductor

Mr. Allan McMurray is Professor of Conducting, Director of Bands, Conductor of the Wind Ensemble and the Symphonic Band, and Chair of the Conducting Faculty at the University of Colorado. Prior to this position, he was on the faculty of the University of Michigan. He has also been on the faculties of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, the Interlochen Arts Academy, and was Artist-in-Residence at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. Since Professor McMurray’s arrival in 1978, the University of Colorado Bands have distinguished themselves with performances at major conferences and conventions, including the First International Conference for Symphonic Bands in Manchester, England; the All-Japan Band Conference in Nemo Nu Sato, Japan; the College Band Directors National Association Convention in Boulder, Colorado (twice); and the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles in Hamamatsu, Japan. He has premiered numerous works for wind ensemble and has earned praise from such notable composers as George Crumb, John Harbison, Steven Stucky, Michael Colgrass, Joseph Schwantner and Warren Benson for his expressive interpretations of their works. Considered an authority on conducting pedagogy and wind repertoire, Professor McMurray has been a guest conductor, lecturer and clinician throughout the United States and 13 foreign countries. He is the host for the CBDNA National Conducting Symposium in Boulder and founded the conductor’s intern program during the summer at Arrowbear Music Camp in California. Former conducting students now hold high school, college and professional conducting positions throughout North America. Professor McMurray received a Bachelor’s Degree in Music Education from California State University in Long Beach and graduate degrees in trumpet performance and conducting from the University of Wisconsin. He has done post-graduate study in trumpet and conducting at the Advanced Institute of the Arts in Montreux, Switzerland. He is President of the College Band Directors National Association, on the Board of Directors for the John Philip Sousa Foundation, and a member of numerous professional organizations, including the American Bandmasters Association. In addition, he is a recipient of the Bohumil Makovsky Award for Outstanding College Band Directors from the national band fraternity, Kappa Kappa Psi.

All-State Band Acknowledgments

- Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors and school administrators from throughout the state. Without their cooperation, this activity could not take place.
- Thanks to Kent Summers and MSHSAA for their help and cooperation.
- Thanks to MMEA Band Vice-Presidents for running the district level auditions and providing MBA with the lists of eligible students.
- Thanks to Wingert-Jones Music, Shattinger Music, Marler's Music Company, Moberly High School, University of Missouri-Columbia, Northwest Missouri State University, Truman State University, and Lebanon High School.
- Thanks to Hennessy Music for supplying the acoustic piano for the rehearsal room.
- Thanks to all the judges and registration personnel for their hours of dedicated work on December 5.
- Thanks to Head Chaperone Pam Henry and to all of the All-State Chaperones.
- Thanks to Paul Copenhaver and Rosa Adams-Bussard for their help with percussion equipment and assignments.
- Special thanks to John Patterson, Rob Nichols, Michael Knight and the Hickman High School staff, parents and students who hosted the All-State Band Auditions on December 5. Without your hospitality and generosity, this would not be possible.
- Thanks to Jim, Steve, Skip, Paul, Wendell and Pam. Thanks to all of you who donated your time and effort to make this project a success.

Howie Smith - Conductor

About the Conductor

A virtuoso saxophonist, composer and jazz musician, Howie Smith does not easily fit into a single category. As a performer he has worked with musicians and composers as diverse as Louis Bellson, Aretha Franklin, Abraham Laboriel, Mike Nock, Elvis Presley, Sarah Vaughn, Luciano Berio and John Cage. His recorded performances are equally diverse: from big bands (Phil Wilson and Frank Mantooth's Jazz Orchestra) to small jazz groups (the Australian Quartet Jazz co/op) to saxophone concertos by Edward Miller and Salvatore Martirano (the latter recorded with the Cleveland Chamber Symphony). He has also presented numerous concerts and workshops throughout the United States, Canada, South America, Europe and Australia.

His catalogue of compositions is extensive. He has created works for conventional big bands and combos; for string, wind and percussion ensemble; for electronics; and for mixed media. Recordings of his work may be heard on the Philips, Outrageous, Polydor, Optimism and Sea Breeze labels, and his music for jazz ensembles is available through the C.L. Barnhouse Co., Doug Beach Music, Kendor Music Inc., Otama Music and Walrus Music Publishing. He has been coordinator of Jazz Studies at Cleveland State University since 1979 and has twice served as co-chair of both the jazz fellowships and the music overview panels for the National Endowment for the Arts. He has been associated with Yamaha as an artist/clinician since 1971.
