Alastair Willis - Conductor

About the Conductor

Since September 2000, Alastair Willis has held the position of Assistant Conductor with the Seattle Symphony. Among his responsibilities are conducting education, family, neighborhood and select Seattle Pops concerts, as well as covering all remaining rehearsals and performances. So far this season, he has also guest conducted the Harrisburg (Pennsylvania) Symphony, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the San Antonio Symphony. Prior to Seattle, he was the Assistant Conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony and Pops Orchestras, and Music Director of the Cincinnati Symphony Youth Orchestra. Guest conducting appearances last season included the Civic Orchestra of Chicago, Seattle Symphony Orchestra, Detroit Symphony Orchestra and Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

In September 1999, Mr. Willis was chosen to participate as one of six conductors in the American Symphony Orchestra League’s National Conductor Preview with the Utah Symphony. Earlier that year, he was awarded a conducting fellowship to attend the Tanglewood Music Festival, where he studied and collaborated with Seiji Ozawa, Robert Spano, Jorma Panula, Claudio Abbado, James Conlon and Andre Previn. For the summer of 1998, he was invited as a fellow to attend the Aspen Music Festival, where he studied with David Zinman, Murry Sidlin, Ivan Fischer and David Robertson.

In 1996, he won a scholarship to study with Maestro Larry Rachleff at the Shepherd School of Music at Rice University in Houston, Texas, where he completed his Master of Music degree in 1999. In addition to assisting Rachleff, he spent three years as Principal Conductor of the Campanile Orchestra, one of Houston’s finest community orchestras. Mr. Willis first began conducting at Bristol University in England, where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in music with honors. He continued his studies at Kingston University in London, while conducting a number of youth orchestras there. 1994, he was awarded the Salveston Baton Prize for his work and dedication in this field. Mr. Willis has also performed on stage in London’s West End, acting, singing, dancing and playing the trumpet as one of 10 principals in the award-winning show Fame - The Musical. Mr. Willis is featured on the Original London Cast recording.

Willie L. Hill, Jr. - Conductor

About the Conductor

Dr. Willie L. Hill, Jr. is Director of the Fine Arts Center at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, and a Professor in Music Education. He received his B.S. degree from Grambling State University and earned M.M. and Ph.D degrees from the University of Colorado-Boulder. Dr. Hill was a Professor in Music Education and the Assistant Dean at the College of Music at the University of Colorado-Boulder for 11 years and Director of Education for the Thelonious Monk Institute. Prior to his tenure at the University of Colorado, Hill taught instrumental music and served as instrumental music supervisor for 20 years in the Denver Public Schools.

His professional activities in the Denver metro area included the following: a former member of the Denver Bronco Jazz Ensemble; a regular performer at the Denver Auditorium Theater, Paramount Theater, Boettcher Concert Hall and a variety of nightclubs; guest soloist with the Garden City Community College, Hastings College, the University of Colorado and the University of Denver Jazz Ensembles; a freelance performer with George Burns, Liza Minnelli, Lena Horne, Lou Rawls, Ben Vereen, Lola Falana, Johnny Mathis, Sammy Davis Jr., Dizzy Gillespie, James Mody, and Jon Faddis to name a few. As a woodwind specialist, he has been a faculty member of the Clark Terry Great Plains Jazz Camp; Founder and Co-Director of the Rich Matteson-Telluride Jazz Academy and the Mile High Jazz Camp in Boulder.

The Colorado Clarinet Choir was chosen to represent the United States in London, England (1984), at the International Clarinet Symposium and Dr. Hill was a member of that touring organization. His conducting experiences include numerous Denver Public Schools Citywide Honor performances, All-State Jazz Ensembles, All-County Bands, Musical Director at The Schwayder and Bonfils Theaters. He is currently President-Elect of MENC; National Association for Music Education; Past-President of the International Association of Jazz Educators (IAJE); a member of the writing team for the MENC's Vision 2020; a member of the national board of directors for the Young Audiences, Inc.; and is Past-President of the Colorado Music Education Association and Pi Kappa Lambda. In 1998, he was inducted into the Colorado Music Educators Hall of Fame.

A national artist/clinician for Yamaha Music Instrument Company, he is also co-author of Learning to Sight-Read Jazz, Rock, Latin and Classical Styles, and the author of The Instrumental History of Jazz and Approaching the Standards. Dr. Willie L. Hill, Jr. is listed in the first edition of Who's Who Among Black Americans and Who's Who Among International Musicians.

Richard Bjella - Conductor

Lorie Frances - Pianist

About the Conductor

Richard Bjella is Director of Choral Studies at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wisconsin, where he also teaches a preparatory program for student teachers and supervises their progress in the student teaching process.

Bjella has conducted in Prague, Paris, Lucerne and London, and has guest conducted over 350 festivals throughout the United States. The Lawrence University Concert Choir has performed with such diverse ensembles as New York’s Musica Sacra, Dave Brubeck and his quartet, and the National Choir of Israel, and has sung under the batons of such noted conductors as Richard Westenburg, Margaret Hillis, Paul Salamunovich, Sir David Willcocks and Don Moses. In 1992, they appeared at the North Central Divisional Convention of the ACDA, and they have performed twice for the National Kodaly Music Educators Convention (1995 in Minneapolis and 1998 in New Orleans). Their CD, A Time for Remembrance, was given national recognition in the May 5, 1995 issue of the Chronicle for Higher Education.

Bjella’s teaching experience prior to coming to Lawrence University includes four years as choral director at Ripon High School in Ripon, Wisconsin, and six years at Washington High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He also served as director of the Old Gold Singers at the University of Iowa, and conductor and founder of the Cedar Rapids Symphony Chorus.

Bjella is active in both the Wisconsin Choral Directors Association and the Wisconsin Music Educators Association. At present, he is past president of the WCDA, North Central Division R & S Chair for Community Choir, and a member of the Comprehensive Musicianship through Performance (CMP) leadership task force for the WMEA.

Anthony Maiello - Conductor

About the Conductor

Mr. Anthony Maiello is Professor of Music and Director of Instrumental studies at George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia. His academic career includes public school teaching and service as Professor of Music and Chairman of Performance at the Crane School of Music, SUNY, Potsdam.

Under Professor Maiello's direction, the ensembles at Crane and George Mason University have commissioned many new works, made numerous recordings and CDs, and have appeared at regional, state and national conferences in the Western Hemisphere.

Professor Maiello currently travels widely presenting clinics, lectures, and workshops, as well as guest conducting and adjudicating numerous music festivals. He has served as Associate Conductor of the McLean Orchestra, McLean, Virginia, and also conducted musical activities for the Gold Medal Ceremonies of the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, New York.

Professor Maiello's travels as conductor, clinician, and adjudicator have taken him to Europe, Mexico, Canada, and the Bahamas, as well as throughout the United States. Professor Maiello holds Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in music, both earned at Ithaca College, New York.

All-State Band Acknowledgments

- Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors and school administrators throughout the state. Without their cooperation, this activity could not take place.
- Thanks to Kent Summers and MSHSAA for their help and cooperation.
- Thanks to the MMEA Band Vice-Presidents for organizing the district level auditions and providing MBA with the lists of eligible students.
- Thanks to Amy Arnold (Scott City) from Southeast Missouri State University for playing E-flat Soprano Clarinet with the ensemble.
- Thanks to Wingert-Jones Music, Band Instrument Service Company, Moberly High School, Farmington High School and the University of Missouri-Columbia.
- Thanks to all the auditioners and registration personnel for their hours of dedicated work on December 2.
- Thanks to Head Chaperone Pam Henry and to all of the All-State Chaperones.
- Thanks to Paul Copenhaver and Rosa Adams-Bussard for their help with percussion equipment and assignments.
- Special thanks to Rob Nichols, Denis Swope and the Hickman High School staff, parents and students who hosted the All-State Band Auditions on December 2. Without your hospitality and generosity, this would not be possible.
- Thanks to Jim, Steve, Wendell, Jay and Kurt. Thanks to all of you who donated your time and effort to make this project a success.
