About the Conductor

Dr. Aimee Beckmann-Collier is Director of Choral Studies at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, where she has taught since 1989. She enjoys a growing national reputation and is a frequent clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor for high school and college choral festivals and contests throughout the country. She made her Carnegie Hall debut in June 1998, conducting Haydn’s Heiligmesse, with the New England Symphonic Ensemble and choirs from throughout the United States, and has been invited to return to conduct there in 2002. Recently she has conducted the Colorado and Utah All-State choruses, the New England Music Festival and the Iowa Collegiate Honor Choir. In October 2000, she conducted the MCDA Women’s Festival Chorus. Beckmann-Collier is vice president of the Iowa Choral Directors Association and has served as chairperson of the 1992 ACDA North Central Division Convention and the 1995 ICDA Summer Symposium. A former editor of Melisma and Sounding Board, she currently serves on the executive board of ACDA’s North Central Division. Her articles on Renaissance performance practices, music of the Classical period, and teaching critical thinking skills in the choral rehearsal have been published in the Choral Journal. A graduate of Saint Mary’s College, Notre Dame, Indiana, which presented her with its first Distinguished Music Alumna Award, Dr. Beckmann-Collier received master’s and doctoral degrees in choral conducting from the University of Iowa, where she studied with Don V Moses. She recently received Drake University’s Madelyn Levitt Award for Distinguished Community Service.
