Craig Kirchhoff - Conductor

About the Conductor

Craig Kirchhoff is Professor of Conducting and Director of University Bands at the University of Minnesota, where he conducts the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, coordinates the graduate program in wind ensemble/band conducting and guides all aspects of the band program. He has won critical acclaim from composers Henry Brant, Michael Colgrass, Warren Benson, Karel Husa, George Perle, Vincent Persichetti, Verne Reynolds, Gunther Schuller, Joseph Schwantner, Elliot Schwartz and others.

Prior to his appointment to the faculty of the University of Minnesota, Mr. Kirchhoff served in a similar capacity as Director of Bands at The Ohio State University for 14 years. He was the recipient of The Ohio State University Alumni Distinguished Teaching Award and The Ohio State University School of Music Distinguished Teaching Award. Mr. Kirchhoff is past president of the College Band Directors National Association and is a member of the American Bandmasters Association, the National Band Association, the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, the Music Educators National Conference, and is the founding editor and principal advisor of the College Band Directors National Association Journal.

Mr. Kirchhoff has appeared as guest conductor, clinician and lecturer throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Japan. He is a frequent guest conductor of the Tokyo Kosei Wind Orchestra and has recorded with them on the Kosei Publishing Company label.

Shelly Berg - Conductor

About the Conductor

Shelly Berg is the chair of Jazz Studies in the Thornton School of Music at the University of Southern California. He is a past president of the International Association for Jazz Education (IAJE). He has appeared as a performer, lecturer and All-State clinician throughout the United States, as well as many foreign countries. Shelly has numerous compositions for jazz ensemble in publication, and is the author of the Chop Monster improvisation series (Alfred Publishing) and Jazz Improvisation: The Goal-Note Method (Kendor Music). Shelly's recent CD, The Will (CARS Records), spent eight weeks in the Top Ten of the U.S. Jazz Radio Charts (Gavin). He is the pianist and arranger for trombonist Bill Watrous, and musical director for vocalist Carmen Bradford.

About the Commissioned Work

Jeff Jarvis is the CEO of Kendor Music and the 2001 Missouri All-State Jazz Ensemble Conductor. During the conference last year, the Missouri Unit of IAJE decided to incorporate an original composition into the audition process for District and State auditions. Having had many years of experience as an arranger and composer, Mr. Jarvis agreed to write the first-ever commissioned work for the ensemble and has appropriately entitled it Show Me. The Missouri Unit of IAJE would like to thank Jeff Jarvis for his efforts in this process.

Kenneth Kiesler - Conductor

About the Conductor

Kenneth Kiesler, one of the most prominent and versatile conductors of his generation, was Music Director of the Illinois Symphony Orchestra for 20 years and became the Orchestra's Conductor Laureate at the end of the 1999-2000 season. He was Music Director of the Illinois Chamber Orchestra from its inception in 1985 until June of 2000 and led its debuts at Alice Tully Hall in 1987 and Carnegie Hall in 1990. Kiesler has appeared as guest conductor with the National Symphony Orchestra at the Kennedy Center, the Chicago Symphony at Orchestra Hall, the Utah, Detroit, New Jersey, Florida, Indianapolis, Memphis, and San Diego Symphonies; the orchestras of Albany, Virginia, Omaha, Fresno, Long Beach, Long Island and Portland, the Texas Chamber Orchestra, the Ohio Chamber Orchestra, as well as the Festivals of Meadowbrook, Skaneateles, Sewanee, Breckenridge, and Aspen. Kiesler has appeared several times with the Jerusalem Symphony and the Haifa Symphony in Israel, the Osaka Philharmonic in Japan, the Puerto Rico Symphony in San Juan, the New Symphony Orchestra in Sofia, Bulgaria, and the Pusan Symphony among others in Korea. Kenneth Kiesler was the recipient of the 1988 Helen M. Thompson Award presented every two years to the outstanding American Music Director under the age of 35. He was honored as one of three participants in the Leonard Bernstein American Conductors Program, and was the winner of the Silver Medal at the 1986 Leopold Stokowski Competition at Avery Fisher Hall. He was one of four American conductors selected to conduct the Ensemble Intercontemporain in sessions with Pierre Boulez during the festivities celebrating the Carnegie Hall Centenary.

Mr. Kiesler has held the positions of Professor of Conducting and Director of University Orchestras at the University of Michigan School of Music since 1995. The Graduate Conducting Programs attract hundreds of applicants from around the globe and were recently ranked the number one program nationwide by US News and World Report. Mr. Kiesler has led conductors' workshops for the American Symphony Orchestra League, the Conductors' Guild, the Conductors' Institute and others.

A native of New York, Kenneth Kiesler studied at the University of New Hampshire (Bachelor of Music 1975) and the Peabody Conservatory of the Johns Hopkins University (Master of Music 1980) where he held assistantships in opera, orchestra, and chorus. He was a Fellow in Orchestral Conducting and later a member of the faculty at the Aspen Music School. He has also studied at the Accademia Musicale Chigiana in Siena, Italy, and on a special scholarship in opera conducting at Indiana University where, at age 23, he became the youngest conductor of a full production (Cosi fan Tutte) in the history of the Indiana University Opera Theatre. His teachers have included John Nelson, Fiora Contino, Julius Herford, James Wimer, Erich Leinsdorf and Carlo Maria Giulini. Mr. Kiesler regularly serves on juries for various instrumental competitions and as a judge for the Metropolitan Opera National Council. A chapter-long interview with Kenneth Kiesler is included in Jeannine Wagar's book entitled Conductors in Conversation: Fifteen Contemporary Conductors Discuss Their Lives and Profession.

Dr. Eph Ehly - Conductor
Dr. Scott Farthing - Accompanist

About the Conductor

Dr. Eph Ehly, recently retired from the from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music after 27 years of service, has conducted over 80 All-State Choirs and over 600 festival ensembles. As a lecturer, clinician and conductor, he has appeared in 48 states, Canada, Brazil, Japan, Mexico, and throughout Europe, and has presented on more than 100 college and university campuses. The UMKC Board of Trustee's selection of Ehly, for the Faculty Fellowship Award that granted him a stipend of $10,000, evidences that popularity of his unique and enthusiastic approach to teaching. In 1998, he was the recipient of the Mrs. Ewing M. Kauffman Excellence in Teaching Award, and was also a past recipient of the UMKC Trustees' Teaching Award for Excellence. He was twice presented the Amoco Foundation Outstanding Teaching Award and was the first Outstanding Alumni Award during the Diamond Jubilee Celebration from the University of Nebraska-Kearney. Other awards include the Gary Thomas Distinguished Alumni Award and the Luther T. Spade Award, presented by the Missouri Choral Directors Association for his contributions to the choral art in the state of Missouri.

Dr. Ehly received his Doctor of Musical Arts Degree from the University of Colorado, his Master of Music Degree from George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee and his Bachelor of Arts Degree is from the University of Nebraska-Kearney. Notable teachers he has studied with are: Jean Berger, Julius Hereford, Warner Imig, William Lynn, George Lynn, Louis Nicholas, Vincent Persichetti and Lynn Whitten. As a past recipient of two faculty grants, Ehly studied advanced compositional techniques in choral music while visiting leading composers and conductors in the Soviet Union, Poland, Germany, England, Sweden, Denmark, France, Italy, Austria and Switzerland. Under the sponsorship of the Partners of the Americas Program, Dr. Ehly served as Guest Artist in Residence to Belem, the capitol of the state of Bara, Brazil, and a second residency in Rio de Janeiro. Hal Leonard Publishing Company released the "first of its kind" Video Master Classes, which feature Dr. Ehly's philosophies in conducting and rehearsal techniques.
