About the Conductor

Bob Chilcott has been involved in choral music for most of his life, as a boy chorister and choral scholar at King's College, Cambridge, and as a member of the vocal group The King's Singers for twelve years. Over the past six years he has poured his energy into the amateur choir world as a composer, conductor and choral clinician, with an emphasis on work with and for young singers.

As well as being conductor of the Royal College of Music Chorus, which he has conducted for seven seasons, Bob is Principal Guest Conductor of the BBC Singers, with whom he makes eight to ten recordings and concerts a year. Highlights this year include a concert in the South Bank's Choral festival "World Voice," and a performance of the Brahms German Requiem with piano duet for BBC Radio 3 online. In the coming year, as well as undertaking a major project with the Taipei Chamber Singers, he will also make his debut with the RIAS Kammerchor in Berlin as part of the "Zeitfenster" Festival. This will be a groundbreaking programme in conjunction with the Women's Choir Angelite from Bulgaria, and the male ensemble Tenores from Sardinia.

The conductor/producer of twenty-seven CD’s, Russell has received two Grammy nominations. All of his recordings have been enthusiastically received by listeners and critics alike, as has his vital and imaginative orchestral leadership. Dr. Russell spends part of each summer conducting and teaching at the Interlochen Arts Camp. 2004 was his 20th summer there, leading the World Youth Symphony for the eighteenth consecutive year. In recent years, he has conducted All-State Orchestras in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, New Mexico, Ohio, Oklahoma, and Texas.
