Mark Edward Parker - Conductor

About the Conductor

Mark Edward Parker has been conductor of the Oklahoma City University Symphony Orchestra since 1990 and dean of the OCU Bass School of Music since 1995. He was named Outstanding Professor in the School of Music and Performing Arts in 1994 and again in 1995. Recognition includes a national award for Adventurous Programming from ASCAP and the American Symphony Orchestra League (2000); Outstanding Alumnus from Eastern Michigan University (1999); SAI’s National Arts Associate (1998) and the Governor’s Arts Award for Education (2002). In May 2004, Parker took the Oklahoma City University Symphony Orchestra on a six city tour of China - the most extensive of any western orchestra.

Parker is founding president of the DaVinci Institute and has served on many arts boards, including Lyric Theatre of Oklahoma; OKC Public Schools Arts Advisory Council; Civic Music Association; Harrison Academy of the Performing Arts; Oklahoma Israeli Exchange Commission; Oklahoma Educational Television Advisory Board for the series, Gallery; A+ Arts; Business Circle for Arts Education and Liturgy and the Arts.

Parker was artistic director/principal conductor of the American Music Festival in Duncan, Oklahoma, (1994-97); Oklahoma City Philharmonic guest conductor (1993), and music director and conductor of Lyric Theatre in Oklahoma City (1991-1992). Mark Parker earned his Bachelor’s in Music Education from Eastern Michigan University and his Master’s of Music degree from the University of Michigan.

Kjos, Kendor, Doug Beach, Walrus, UNC Jazz Press, Three-Two Music, and his own company, have published his compositions. Visit his web site at <www.garciamusic.com>.

About the Commissioned Work

“Missouri Years” is an original Swing piece composed by Rick Stitzel, Music Instructor at Tarrant County College in the Ft. Worth, Texas area. A tutti section was written for the full band and was used as part of the district and state auditions. The title “Missouri Years” is dedicated to the jazz students of Viburnum C-4 H.S. in Viburnum, Missouri.

Elena Sharkova - Conductor

Cheryl Nichols - Accompanist

Janet O'Neil - Accompanist

About the Conductor

Ms. Sharkova, Artistic Director of the Symphony Silicon Valley Chorale, joined the Music Department at San José State University in the fall of 1998 and is assistant professor of music and Director of Choral Activities. In addition to the Chorale, she currently directs two of the University choral ensembles - the University Women’s Chorus and the Concert Choir — and teaches classes in voice, ear-training, choral methods, and choral conducting. She was recently named Artistic Director of the Cantabile Youth Choruses, a program of the Cantabile Choral Guild.

Professor Sharkova was born and raised in St. Petersburg, Russia, where she received a Bachelor’s Degree in music education and piano, and a Master’s Degree in choral conducting from St. Petersburg State Rimski-Korsakov Conservatory. Upon graduation in 1988, Elena was appointed Chair of the Choral Department of the Preparatory Music School at the Conservatory where she conducted four children’s choruses and taught the innovative Ogorodnov Method to graduate students until 1993.

In 1996 Ms. Sharkova received her second Master’s degree in choral conducting from Western Michigan University. Before moving to the U.S in 1993, Ms. Sharkova toured extensively for five years with one of the finest Russian professional choirs, Lege Artis. Besides concertizing throughout Russia, Europe and the United States, the ensemble also recorded five CDs for the SONY Classical label and won numerous prizes at European choral festivals and competitions.

Ms. Sharkova is in demand as guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator, and has lectured extensively on Russian choral tradition and performance practices. In addition, she has presented workshops and clinics for ACDA, CMEA and Association of Kodaly Educators on innovative choral rehearsal techniques. Choirs under Ms. Sharkova’s direction toured and performed in Scandinavia, the Baltic Republics, Russia and Austria. Ms. Sharkova has previously held faculty positions at Western Michigan University and St. Petersburg State Conservatory.

John Whitwell - Conductor

About the Conductor

This year’s conductor of the Missouri All-State Band is John Whitwell, Professor Emeritus from Michigan State University. Prior to his appointment at Michigan State he held positions at Stephen F. Austin University and Abilene Christian University as well as taught in the public schools of Michigan as band director at Ann Arbor Huron and Northwest Jackson High School.

Mr. Whitwell’s bands have been considered some of the finest in the country. His bands have performed for the CBDNA Convention, the TMEA Conference, and the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic. Personal honors Mr. Whitwell has received include the A.R. MacAllister “Mac” Award, the Michigan “Band Teacher of the Year”, the “Citation of the Year” presented by the National Band Association, the Kappa Kappa Psi “Distinguished Service to Music” award, the American School Band Directors “Edwin Franko Goldman” award, and the Michigan State University “Distinguished Professor” award. Mr. Whitwell maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor and clinician throughout the United States and has held resident seminars at the University of Michigan, Northwestern University, the University of Minnesota, the Cincinnati Conservatory, Ithaca College, the University of Arizona, Wichita State University, Arkansas State University, and the Interlochen Arts Academy.

All-State Band Acknowledgments

- Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors and school administrators throughout the state. Without their cooperation, this activity could not take place.
- Thanks to Davine Davis and MSHSAA for their help and cooperation.
- Thanks to MMEA Band Vice-Presidents for organizing the district level auditions and providing MBA with the lists of eligible students.
- Thanks to Morgan Music and the University of Missouri - Columbia for providing music folders and sheet music for all-state band.
- Thanks to all the registration personnel for their hours of dedicated work on December 16.
- Thanks to Head Chaperone Pam Henry and to all of the All-State Chaperones.
- Thanks to Rosa Adams-Bussard, Michael Faris, Bill Williams and Dr. Julia Gaines for their help with percussion equipment, part assignments and rehearsals.
- Thanks to Hickman High School administration, staff, parents and students who hosted the All-State Band Auditions on December 16. Without your hospitality and generosity, this would not be possible.
- Special thanks to Rob, Ann, Paul, Kurt, Wendell and Jay.
- Thanks to Laura Ruether and Data Keeper Technologies and Doyle Edwards at Icarus Visual Productions for setting up the online audition process.
- Thanks to Laura, Kurt, Richie, Denise, Amanda and Julie for your amazing help at auditions.
