Anthony J. Maiello - Conductor

About the Conductor

Anthony J. Maiello received both his bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Ithaca College in 1965 and 1967, respectively. He studied at the National Conducting Institute under the direction of Mr. Leonard Slatkin, Musical Director of the National Symphony Orchestra. He also serves as a Cover Conductor for the National Symphony Orchestra at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Maiello's many professional credits include clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor of All-State, All-State Sectional, Regional, District, All-County, and All-City ensembles, with appearances throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, England, Europe, The Netherlands, and The Bahamas. His academic experience included extensive teaching in the public schools. He served as Professor of Music and Chairman of Performance at the Crane School of Music, Potsdam College of SUNY, Potsdam, New York, where his duties included advanced instrumental conducting, applied clarinet, woodwind and percussion techniques, and conductor of the Crane Wind Ensemble. He is the author of CONDUCTING: A HANDS-ON APPROACH, CONDUCTING NUANCES: LITTLE THINGS MEAN A LOT, and co-author of the 21ST CENTURY BAND METHOD.

Anthony Maiello is presently Professor of Music and Director of Instrumental Studies at George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia, where he conducts the Symphony Orchestra and Wind Symphony and teaches several conducting courses. He is also the conductor of the American Wind Symphony and American Festival Philharmonic Orchestra, Washington, D.C.

Michael Kocour-Conductor

About the Conductor

Michael Kocour is an Associate Professor and the Director of Jazz Studies at Arizona State University in Tempe, Arizona. Hailed by the Chicago Tribune as "one of the most sophisticated pianists in jazz," Kocour has performed at venues around the world and has been a guest on Marian McPartland's internationally syndicated NPR program "Piano Jazz." Michael has appeared with many artists and ensembles including Dizzy Gillespie, Eddie Harris, James Moody, Eddie Daniels, Randy Brecker, Benny Golson, Ira Sullivan, Carl Fontana, Dewey Redman, Lew Tabackin, and the Chicago Symphony.

About the Commissioned Work

"Mia's Lamplight Foxtrot" is an original swing chart by Michael Philip Mossman, the Director of Jazz Studies at Queens College in New York City and the director of the 2008 Missouri All-State Jazz Band. Excerpts of the piece served as the required audition etudes for entry into the Missouri All State Jazz Ensemble. Michael says "This piece is all about modest beginnings and big aspirations. The harmonic style of the piece comes from my mentor, Horace Silver. Horace always manages to achieve something grand in his song writing, even when arranged for a quintet! The rhythm is that of Foxtrot, a classic ballroom swing style, invented by Vaudeville actor Harry Fox and made popular by Irene and Vernon Castle. The arrangement is designed to feature the programmatic possibilities presented by the classic jazz ensemble."

Steven McDonald, conductor

About the Conductor

Originally from Reading, Massachusetts, Steven McDonald is a graduate of the Boston University School for the Arts, the Sweelinck Conservatory of Amsterdam (The Netherlands), and is currently completing the Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of Kansas School of Fine Arts. His teachers have included Brian Priestman, Nicholas Uljanov, Joop van Zon, and Thomas Dunn for conducting, Henk van Eeuwijck and Leo Abbott for piano, Craig Rutenberg for vocal coaching, and George Faxon for organ.

Mr. McDonald has served on the faculties of the University of Kansas, Boston University, and Gordon College, and has also served as music director of Musica Modus Vivendi of Harvard University. While at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, he was founder and music director of the Summer Opera and Independent Activities Period orchestra, and conductor of the Chamber Orchestra, and of the Gilbert & Sullivan Players. At the University of Kansas, Mr. McDonald served as assistant conductor of the K.U. Symphony, founder and music director of the Camerata, and has also conducted the K.U. Opera productions of Candide and The Magic Flute. In addition, he is currently active as music director of the Lafayette Swing Orchestra, a "society orchestra" modeled after the great hotel orchestras of the 1930's, and based in Wakefield, Massachusetts.

In June 2007 Steven McDonald was appointed music director of the Lawrence (Kansas) Chamber Orchestra, having previously served as guest conductor in 2003. Under his guidance, this group has transformed itself from a mixed-seating ensemble into a professional chamber orchestra, whose season now includes a mid-winter baroque program (conducted from the harpsichord), and a finale concert featuring winners of the orchestra's youth competition.

Mr. McDonald currently serves as Assistant Professor of Music and Director of Orchestral Activities at Ottawa University, a private liberal arts college in Ottawa, Kansas.

Kevin Fenton - Conductor About the Conductor

Kevin Fenton, Professor of Choral Conducting and Ensembles at Florida State University, holds the Ph.D. from Florida State University, the M.M. from the Conservatory of Music at the University of Missouri in Kansas City and the B.M.E. from Friends University in Wichita, Kansas. Kevin conducts the University Singers and teaches graduate and undergraduate courses in choral conducting and choral literature. He is also the Artistic Director for the Festival Singers of Florida, based in Orlando.

His prior appointments include Director of Choral Activities at James Madison University and Virginia Tech, and on nine occasions, he has conducted ensembles in performances for regional and national conventions of the American Choral Directors Association and the Music Educators' National Conference. As a result of his positive approach to choral conducting, Dr. Fenton has served as a clinician for numerous workshops, honor choirs and clinics in twenty-six states throughout the country, including the ACDA Southern Division Honor Choir in 2008 and the Beijing International Choral Festival Choir with China's People's Liberation Orchestra as a part of China's Choral Conductor's Meeting in 2007. In 2009-2010 Kevin will be conducting all-state choirs in Alabama, Hawaii, Missouri and New York. Kevin's textbook Foundations of Choral Conducting (released in the spring of 2007) has been adopted by more than twenty universities throughout the United States, and he has also written articles appearing in the Choral Journal, the Music Educators Journal, and the Bulletin for Historical Research in Music Education. Dr. Fenton is a recipient of the Gamma Mu Chapter of Delta Omicron Music Professor of the Year Award and has been nominated for a Florida State University Teaching Award for Excellence for the past seven years.

Dr. Fenton is an active member of the American Choral Directors Association and served as Southern Chair and then National Chair of the ACDA College/University Repertoire and Standards Committee from 1999-2006. He is currently President-Elect for Florida ACDA.
