Chris Merz-Conductor

About the Conductor

Chris Merz, Associate Professor of Music, has served as Director of Jazz Studies and Director of the award-winning UNI Jazz Band One at the University of Northern Iowa since 2002. Under his direction, the band has recorded eight CDs featuring many original compositions and arrangements by student and faculty writers. He has also taught at the University of Wyoming, the University of Massachusetts, and the University of Natal in Durban, South Africa. Chris has toured four continents with Dave Brubeck and other members of the Brubeck family and played lead alto saxophone with several East Coast groups, including the Cecil Bridgewater Big Band, the New England Jazz Ensemble and the Jeff Holmes big Band. His own projects include Equilateral and the X-tet, a 12-piece big band. Chris has several compact disc recordings to his credit, including a collaboration with UNI colleague Bob Washut (Gemini), two discs with Equilateral (...And Another Thing and Also Not Pictured...) and one with the X-tet (Mystery is My Story). About that disc, Dave Brubeck wrote, “I am very pleased with this wonderful band. Naturally, I would admire a group like yours that, to me, is a grand extension of what we were doing...when we were the “new thing”. He has received commissions from university and high school jazz ensembles throughout the country and has several compositions and arrangements published by the UNC Jazz Press (Greeley,CO). Chris currently resides in Cedar Falls with his wife, Jill, and their sons Benjamin and Matthew.

“Financial support for Chris Merz at the MMEA Conference has been provided by the Missouri Alliance for Arts Education through a grant from the Missouri Arts Council, a state agency.”

About the Commissioned Work

Incident @ Perkins depicts, in the hard bop style, what can happen if you forget to ask for a plastic fork for your “to go” order of pie. It’s a delicious, delicious petty theft! The moral of this story is if you invite a college big band into your home, lock up the silverware. Oh, and there are a lot of parallel fifths in this one, so theory police, get out your red pencil. Seriously, Incident @ Perkins is a big band romp in the hard bop tradition. Inspired by real-life events, this tune is somewhat Breckerish in nature. The piece climaxes in a tug-of-war between the ensemble and the drummer. Who will win? It doesn’t matter, because everyone gets pie.

In addition to his teaching responsibilities at Eastman, Dr. Bergonzi has served as a guest conductor for all-state and regional honors youth orchestras throughout the United States and Canada, as well as, Guest Conductor of the Hong Kong Summer Youth Orchestras and the Melbourne (Australia) Summer Youth Music. In January 2001, he spent a sabbatical working with string teachers throughout that country; he returned to Australia in 2006 as national clinician for the Australian String Teachers Association. He has been on the faculties of the Eastman Summer Seminar in Hamamatsu (Japan), and the International Workshops. His Rounds and Canons for Strings: Shaping Musical Independence is published by Kjos Publishers. Dr. Bergonzi is a string education clinician for Scherl & Roth String Instruments. He was co-director of Establishing Identity: LGBT Studies and Music Education, a May 2010 symposium designed to provide energy to the discussion of how LGBT issues operate within music education in terms of research, curriculum, teacher preparation, and the musical lives and careers of LGBT music students and teachers.
