Anthony J. Maiello - Conductor

About the Conductor

Anthony J. Maiello is Professor of Music at George Mason University. Professor Maiello conducts the GMU Repertory Orchestra and teaches Graduate and Undergraduate Conducting, Jazz Theory & Arranging and Advanced Sight-Singing. From 1996 to 2009, he conducted the GMU Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra. Under his direction, the ensembles at both Crane and George Mason University commissioned new works, made numerous recordings and appeared at national and international conferences.

Professor Maiello also makes professional appearances both nationally and abroad conducting music festivals, adjudicating ensembles and presenting clinics, lectures and workshops throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Bahamas and Europe. He conducted musical activities for the Gold Medal Ceremonies at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, New York; served as Musical Director for Music Festivals International; was selected as President of International Association of Jazz Educators – New York State Chapter; and is a guest clinician for Yamaha Corporation and Warner Bros. Publications.

About the Composer

Composer Stephen Melillo’s more than 1050 works include 3 symphonies, several concerti and over 27-hours of Music for “Ensembles of the 3rd Millennium™.” Winner of the 2009 Telly and Ava Awards for his 2005 Visualized Concert: THAT WE MIGHT LIVE, Stephen’s concert-version, Kakehashi: THAT WE MIGHT LIVE was also nominated for the Pulitzer Prize in Music. His 14 feature film scores include the Academy-Award-nominated 12:01PM. By word-of-mouth, Stephen’s pioneering, self-publishing entity known as STORMWORKS has gone from 0 to thousands of worldwide renderings since 1992.

Terell Stafford - Conductor

About the Conductor

Terell Stafford has been hailed as “one of the great players of our time, a fabulous trumpet player” by piano legend McCoy Tyner. Known for being a gifted and versatile player with a voice all his own, Stafford combines lyricism and a deep love of melody with a spirited, adventurous edge. This uniquely expressive, well-defined musical talent allows Stafford the ability to dance in and around the rich trumpet tradition of his predecessors while making his own inroads.

Since the mid-1990’s Stafford has performed with groups such as Benny Golson’s Sextet, McCoy Tyner’s Sextet, the Kenny Barron Sextet, the Frank Wess Quintet, the Jimmy Heath Big Band, the Clayton Brothers Quintet, and the Jon Faddis Orchestra. Currently, he is a member of the GRAMMY award winning Vanguard Jazz Orchestra as well as drummer Matt Wilson’s group, “Arts and Crafts,” and drummer Alvin Queen’s group, “Alvin Queen and the Organics.” Stafford has recorded six albums as a leader, including the critically acclaimed This Side of Strayhorn (MAXJAZZ 2011), and is heard on over 90 albums as a sideman.

An educator as well as a performer, Stafford currently holds the positions of Director of Jazz Studies and Chair of Instrumental Studies at Temple University in Philadelphia and is a clinician for the prestigious Vail Foundation in Colorado and Jazz at Lincoln Center’s Essentially Ellington Program. He has also served as a member of the faculty for the Juilliard Institute for Jazz Studies in New York.

Stafford was born in Miami and raised in Chicago and Silver Spring, Maryland. He received a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from the University of Maryland in 1988 and a Masters of Music from Rutgers University in 1993.

“Financial support for Terell Stafford at the 75th MMEA Conference was made available by a generous Jazz Education Partnership from Jazz St. Louis, P. Mauriat Trumpets, and by the Missouri Alliance for Arts Education through a grant from the Missouri Arts Council, a state agency.”

Joshua Habermann-Conductor

Cheryl Nichols, Accompanist

About the Conductor

Joshua Habermann is the director of the Dallas Symphony Chorus and music director of the Santa Fe Desert Chorale. He came to Dallas from the University of Miami Frost School of Music, where he was associate professor and program director of choral studies and conducted the Frost Chorale and other choral ensembles. Habermann also led the Master Chorale of South Florida.

A native of California, Habermann is a graduate of Georgetown University and the University of Texas at Austin, where he completed doctoral studies in conducting with Craig Hella Johnson. He has also studied under Helmuth Rilling (conducting), Scott Foglesong (piano) and David Jones (voice).

Habermann has appeared in numerous conferences and festivals, including international engagements in Havana, Cuba (2002 Festival Internacional de Coros), Germany, Czech Republic, China and France. As a singer (tenor) he performs with the Oregon Bach Festival Chorus (Eugene, Oregon), where he can be heard on the Grammy Award-winning recording of Krzystof Penderecki's Credo. Other projects include two recordings with Austin-based Conspirare: Through the Green Fuse, and Requiem, a Grammy nominee for best choral recording in 2006.

Habermann lives in Dallas with his wife Joanna Habermann (a children's choir director) and daughter Kira.

Gary Green – Conductor

About the Conductor

Gary Green is Professor of Music and Director of Bands in the Frost School of Music at the University of Miami. In addition to supervising all band activities at UM, he is the conductor of the Frost Wind Ensemble and Chairman of Instrumental Performance. In addition, he supervises all graduate conducting students in the wind and percussion area.

Prior to coming to Miami, Professor Green served for ten years as Director of Bands at the University of Connecticut in Storrs, Connecticut. While at the University of Connecticut, Mr. Green was influential in commissioning and recording new works for winds and percussion including Symphony No. 3 by David Maslanka and A Cornfield in July and The River by William Penn.

Since his arrival at the University of Miami, Professor Green has continued the commissioning and performance of important new repertoire for the wind ensemble.

Recent commissions and consortia from composers include: David Gillingham, David Maslanka, Michael Daugherty, Elliott Carter, Christopher Theofanidis, John Harbison, James Syler, Eric Whitacre, Frank Ticheli, Thomas Sleeper, H. Robert Reynolds, and Ken Fuchs. Urban Requiem by Michael Colgrass was commissioned by the Abraham Frost Commission Series and has become a standard in the repertoire for wind ensemble. Among other new compositions written for winds and percussion is the commission for the Frost Wind Ensemble of Christopher Rouse's Wolf Rounds premiered at Carnegie Hall in March 2007.

Mr. Green is a member of the American Bandmasters Association, the College Band Directors Association, the Music Educators National Conference, the Florida Bandmasters Association and the Florida Music Educators Association. He received The Phillip Frost Award for Excellence in Teaching and Scholarship in the Frost School of Music in 2002.

Mr. Green has been Music Director of the Greater Miami Symphonic Band since 1994. Mr. Green is an active conductor and clinician and has appeared with international, national and regional and All State bands as well as intercollegiate bands in all of the continental United States. He has conducted the Texas All-State Band frequently and premiered Lux Aurumque by Eric Whitacre with that ensemble. He is an active clinician and conductor for the Interlochen Summer Arts Academy and has recently conducted in Taipei, Taiwan where he appeared with the Republic of China Army Band and the Taiwan National Wind Ensemble as part of the 2005 International Band Association Festival. He has also conducted in Europe having been the conductor of the World Youth Wind Orchestra for the Mid Europe Music Festival held in Schladming, Austria. In March of 2008, Professor Green hosted the annual convention of the American Bandmasters Association. The convention was held on the campus of the University of Miami in Coral Gables.

All-State Band Acknowledgements

- Thanks for the cooperation of the students, parents, band directors, and school administrators throughout the state. Without this type of teamwork, this activity could not take place.
- Thanks to Davine Davis and MSHSAA for their help and cooperation.
- Thanks to the MMEA District Band Vice Presidents for organizing the district level auditions and providing MBA with the lists of eligible students.
- Thanks to J.W. Pepper for providing the music folders.
- Thanks to all the registration personnel for their hours of dedicated work on December 1.
- Thanks to all the All-State judges for their time and expertise on audition day.
- Thanks to head chaperones Jane Hicklin and Bob Harvey, and all of the All-State Chaperones.
- Thanks to Eddie Owen, Bill Williams, and Dr. Julia Gaines for their help with percussion equipment, part assignments, and rehearsals.
- Thanks to Paul Baur and Camdenton Schools for providing percussion equipment for the All-State Band rehearsals and performance.
- Thanks to Hickman High School administration, staff, parents, and students who hosted the All-State Band auditions on December 1. Without your hospitality and generosity this would not be possible.
- Thank you MMEA Board for your leadership in providing an excellent session for the all-state membership.
- Thanks to Laura Ruether and Doyle Edwards for setting up the on-line registration process, and providing technology support for auditions.
- Thank you to Claire Huck, Kelly Head, Chris Miller and all who helped in the office and with preparations for auditions.
- Special thanks to Linda, Keith, Kurt, Rob, and Doug– it is an honor to work with such a great team of professionals.
- Thank you to Tom Sweeney, you are a huge asset to our program, and it is a privilege to be your colleague.
- Thanks to Julie, Evan and Mia, and friends for your love and support.
